THE PASSPORT PROJECT

Two Sisters Ditch Middle School for a
Life-Changing Journey Around the World

"THANKS FOR RUINING MY LIFE!"

Delaney's eighth-grade dreams crumble when her parents announce their "global family field trip." While her younger sister, Riley, is thrilled to ditch middle school for world school, Delaney cringes at trading parties and friends for a passport and 24/7 family time.

While Riley researches bungee jumping and packing tips, Delaney must decide whether to continue the silent treatment or embrace this adventure.

What about school? Forget science and math, the only way to pass this class is to survive:

- ★ scam artists
- ★ monster cockroaches
- ★ deadly stingers
- ★ projectile vomiting
- ★ public nudity
- ★ toilet catastrophes

...and those lessons aren't in their textbooks. Each passport stamp is a real-life social studies lesson in new religions and new rules—resulting in sooo many awkward family moments. But when an itinerary mistake puts the family's freedom at risk, they learn the most valuable lesson of their lives.

Trapped together in their parents' mid-life crisis, will the sisters survive this global adventure? And will non-stop family time turn them into friends? Or enemies?

Kellie McIntyre is a Southern girl whose passion for the world has taken her to nearly 50 countries across six continents. In 2013, Kellie, her husband, and two daughters packed one suitcase each and embarked on a five-month multi-cultural adventure. Now, she's on a mission to help other families travel boldly. Kellie shares tips for planning and surviving global family (mis)adventures at 4WornPassports.com. The Passport Project is her first book.

When 14- and 12-year-old sisters embark on a global family adventure, they discover that surviving new cultures and customs is even scarier than surviving middle school.

Hopscotch around the world with this coming-of-age travelogue for teens and tweens.
