ABOUT

In 2013, Kellie's family traded middle school for a DIY journey around the world. Kellie's best-selling book, THE PASSPORT PROJECT, is based on their inspiring global "ed-venture" and the lessons learned along the way.

Sharing hilarious-and-harrowing true stories, Kellie challenges her audiences to connect with, and learn from, other cultures—through both travel and books.

MISSION

Kellie speaks to organizations and schools on the intersection of travel and cultural intelligence (CQ)—and how these universal lessons translate to the boardroom, living room, and classroom.
